

Total Eclipse Of The Moon

Enigma

Miles away from light at noon.
Total eclipse of the moon.
Many reasons to believe in life,
Just listen what it's telling you. Come, have a look inside.
Total eclipse of the moon.
Don't be childish and don't be so cruel,
I'm feeling just lonely without... without you. I can see the wide horizons,
But debts, to be paid,
Our ways, will cross again, someday,
Believe and come back to you... may see you soon. Time doesn't say hello.
Total eclipse of the moon.
Many nights in our lives before,
Dreaming to be just beside... beside you
Total eclipse of the moon.
I'll see you soon.
