

I Remember You

The Tenors

Perfect Night
Jasmine in the air
Your summer dress
Moonlight in your hair
I thought I never see your face again
I remember you Your eyes
Candles in the dark
You found me and you stole my lonely heart
Dreaming that I could play a part
I remember you
The night that all the stars were falling down
I remember you
The silence is the loudest thing around
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
I remember you I imagine you were in my arms
(You were in my arms)
As I watch shadows on the wall
(Watch the shadows)
Then you smile at me, and took my breath away
I remember you
The night that all the stars were falling down
I remember you
The silence is the loudest thing around
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
I remember you The night that all the stars were falling down
I remember you
The silence is the loudest thing around
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh Hello, please tell me your name
It's long ago outside
And I'll never be the same (Oh woah oh woah oh) The night that all the stars were falling down
I remember you
The silence is the loudest thing around
(Hey!)

Woah oh oh oh oh
I see your face again
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
Took my breath away
(Hey!)
Woah oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
(Hey!) Suddenly your love I fell into
I remember you
