

Big Girl Body (feat. Eric Roberson)

Robert Glasper Experiment

40 in the hips, 15 in the mind
Grown man sees that and he turns a blind eye Hips hypnotize just a matter of time
This kid won't be a kid no more She falls for this cat, now he keeps her in heels Paints up her face now, enhance the appeal 15 in the mind, he keeps her lips sealed
This kid can't be a kid no more But--look in her eyes, look in her eyes,
man in her eyes,
she's still a little girl
In that big girl body yeah,
In that big girl body yeah. She runs from her home, now she drops out of school
Keep her in check using drugs as a tool
And gives him a bone, now she looks like a fool
'Cause to him she's not a kid no more So she just goes right back to what she thinks is best, Showing her tail and just showing some chest,
Though a kid inside feeling never left,
Just a kid can't be a kid any more But--look in her eyes,
look in her eyes,
man in her eyes,
she's just a little girl
she's just a little girl
she's just a little girl
In a big girl body yeah,
In a big girl body yeah,
In a big girl body yeah,
In a big girl body yeah.
She's still a little girl.
