

Jack Daniels

Eric Church

yea
alright yea, come on awe listen up I've got a reputaion going around, i aint never been the kind to back down I've thrown a punch or 2 and gave a few black eyes but jack daniels kicked my ass again last night .
yea i hung in pretty good for round 2, but he dont fight fair like daddy tought me tooher memory turned my head & then he snuck up from behind but jack daniels kicked my ass again last night i always thought this heart, was made of steel and bullet proof but the memory of her tail lights fading, brakes it right in two guess every Superman has got his kryptonite - i got mine - but jack daniels kicked my ass again last night well i didnt bleed and i aint black and blue But it aint hard to tell who got the better of who'cause in the morning light, i'm hard to recognize yea, jack daniels kicked my ass again last night yea, i always thought this heart, was made of steel and bullet proof but the memory of her tail lights fading brakes it right in two guess every Superman has got his kryptonite jack daniels kicked my ass again last night alright break it down, right here now you want the proof im about to give you the proof right here that black label is like blackpowder for my soul my head feels like a bomb about to blow hell im half inclined to give that fuse a light and let jack daniels kick my ass again tonight
