

Saviour

Lights

The night is deafening when the silence is listening
And I'm down on my knees and I know that something is missing.
Because the back of my mind is holding things I'm relying in But I choose to ignore it because I'm always denying them. I'm a bit of a manic when it's not as I plan it
Cause I start losing my head and then I get up in a panic
Remember when we were kids and always knew when to quit it Are we denying a crisis or are we scared of admitting it? I don't want to know I just want to run to you
And break off the chains and throw them away
I just want to be so much
And shake off the dust that turned me to rust
Sooner than later I'll need a saviour
I'll need a saviour
It won't ever change if you want it to stay the same
I really hate it but I know it's hard to choose if you're chained
And when it's all you control cause you've got nothing less to hold You're getting tighter and tighter it's getting harder to let it go I don't want to know I just want to run to you
And break off the chains and throw them away
I just want to be so much
And shake off the dust that turned me to rust
Sooner than later I'll need a saviour
I'll need a saviour Stand me up and maybe I won't be so small Free my hands and feet and maybe I won't always fall...
Save me
I just want to run to you
And break off the chains and throw them away
I just want to be so much
And shake off the dust that turned me to rust
I just want to run to you
And break off the chains and throw them away
I just want to be so much
And shake off the dust that turned me to rust
Sooner than later I'll need a saviour
I'll need a saviour
