

Homewrecker

Gretchen Wilson

Well you're a real hot cookie with your new hairdo
Your high heel boots and your credit card
Long legs and a mini skirt

Yeah you know what works and you work it hard
You smile like such a lady, innocent and sweet
You drive the men folk crazy, but any girl can see

You're just a

CHORUS:
Homewrecker

I know what you're doin'

You think you're gonna ruin what I got, but you're not

Yeah you little go getter

I'll teach you a lesson

If you get to messin' with my man

You don't stand a chance

No, you're just a homewrecker

I'm sure you waited for a long, long time

To find a man like mine

But honey you're too late

So before you go and make your move

Maybe me and you should get a few things straight

There's two ways we can do this

I'll let you decide

You can take it somewhere else

Or we can take it outside, you little Homewrecker

I know what you're doin'

You think you're gonna ruin what I got, but you're not

Yeah you little go getter

I'll teach you a lesson

If you get to messin' with my man

You don't stand a chance

No, you're just a homewrecker

Now honey, I'm a Christian, but if you keep it up

I'm-a gonna go to kickin' your pretty little butt

Is that clear enough, yeah, you little Homewrecker

I'll teach you a lesson

If you get to messin' with my man

You don't stand a chance

No, you're just a homewrecker Yeah you're just a homewrecker

A homewrecker
