

Domingo

Yello

We are here
In this holy cave today
To celebrate
The reincarnation
Of Domingo de Santa Clara
The man who convinced us
That there is no Lord
For His name is Buddha, Allah, Shiva, Jahve
Outside our bodies We are God
'Cause only we can create the idea
Of His existence in our holy brains
Je deteste l'idee de dieu et de son fils
(I hate the idea of God and His son)
C'est une des idees les plus diaboliques
(It's one of the most diabolical ideas)
Dans l'histoire entiere de l'homme
(In the whole history of man) Let us pray to ourselves and our spirits! Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo of Santa Clara
You made us believe
That you are no phantom
When without The slightest spot of a thousand nations
You sprayed your blood of Domingo We all know
Domingo of Santa Clara
Will be born today, tomorrow, and the day after Billions of times
'Til the end of the Universe
Here with a smile on his face
As the rest of our species watches
The catastrophe Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing
Like no one before
