

777 (feat. XXXTENTACION)

Kid Trunks

[Chorus: KiD TRUNKS & XXXTENTACION]

Won't be reminded of the lost days
Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain

[Verse 1: XXXTENTACION]

I'm doing drugs so I can maintain
Part of the reason that I can handle this damn pain
"I'm fuckin' numb" said the lonely heart of the drummer boy
Who'd rather wreak havoc than play around with a Tonka toy
My mirror ain't been clearer lately
I see my mind becoming blind, material mistaken
Heart indulgin' in the things that are forever broken
I seen the father lose his son, why life so fucking hopeless?
Consect of my depression is
That there's no fuckin' recollection when your birth begins
And there's nobody there to hold you when the pain begins
But there's somebody there to fold you when you're caving in Such discuss my such and such, you're a fuckin' loser man
While life's a fuckin' uppercut
Right inside my fuckin' gut
Wanna fuckin' end it but, I don't have the balls to Fuck, I'm such a pussy, fuck me up

[Chorus: KiD TRUNKS & XXXTENTACION]

Won't be reminded of the lost days
Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Won't be reminded of the lost days
Won't be reminded of the lost days

Used to rob the plug for all his work so I could maintain [Outro: KiD TRUNKS]

No, I can't feel no pain right now
Lost in the skies while it's rainin' down
Numbness and hell, what we crave right now
No, I can't feel no pain right now
