

I'll Be OK

Algebra Blessett

Good morning heartache
Seems like you won't go away
I need you to leave
I can't be happy
If I don't move on Everything right
Seem now to be so wrong
Please leave
Just leave And I'll be OK
Letting love find its place for me
I'll be OK
Just letting love find its place for me
Good evening sorrow
I hope you'll be gone by tomorrow
You can't stay here
Here is where loves unafraid to grow
Faith resides here where it overflows
Just go away
You can't stay And I'll be OK
Letting love find its place for me
I'll be OK
Just letting love find its place for me
Something in me can't go on holding you
So I selfishly chose myself over you
Goodnight despair
I know you're not there
But you hear me
And I thank you
I'm free
Its so unfortunate we greet goodbye
It just couldn't happen with you and I
Its better this way
Because I am OK I am OK
Letting love find its place for me
I am OK
Just letting love find its place for me I'll be OK
Just letting love find its place for me
I'll be OK
Letting love find its place for me
