THE EMPTIEST ARMS IN THE WORLD

(Merle Haggard)

«© '73 Tree Publishing, BMI»I only call when I've had that one too many

And my lonely room goes spinning in a whirl

And tonight I couldn't even find my pillow

I've got the emptiest arms in the world

I no longer wear the gold band on my finger

And from time to time I find myself a girl

But when I realize that she's not who I'm holding

I've got the emptiest arms in the world

Empty arms won't ever hold you close again

And these cheap hotels they're like a prison cell that keeps closin' in

And you alone can fill this lonely feelin' of the emptiest arms in the world

And you alone can fill this empty feelin' of the emptiest arms in the world
