

All Eyes On You

Klangkarussell

Twenty-second century princes
New pandas under a glass eye
Over-earnest broadcaster
The promotion of the city state in the positive
The promotion of the very rich as a normal state
The denial of war crimes, phone bugging, arctic kidnapping, dodgy linking Essential business, fixing the imbalance
Board of defense corporation
Unsustainable ripoffs
Deals that won't get done
Deals that will get done
Factory complex, cheap clothes
The markup
Little girls and boys with little hands
Not useful for long
Old tech, disappointing launches
Dramatic change
The volume is down because the demand is up
Turn the volume up please
Well in excess
Far more subdued
New frontiers
Where would you like to write?
Do you need character?
Results just in
Clamping down
Furiously winning
Too much is too much
All eyes on you
Ah, ah, ah, ah Let loose in an ultra-connected state
Feeling lonely? Let the cycle go around again
Firm, but benign
Detainees released
Protecting identities
A septic cleanse
The silence, the absence, the proof
In not being there
A little girl, bugs in every room
The president listens to her phone calls
A certain extent
A strange relationship
My allies spy my peak

Loving traitors, loving majors, compensation
A better life
Trapped in the rubble
Is this fashion really working?
Maybe there's a lot more than meets the eye Ah, ah, ah, ah
