

Heavy Crown (feat. Ellie Goulding)

Iggy Azalea

Life been crazy, all advice has been to chill more
Ironic I've been living off with people down to kill for
And I find no comfort in numbers knowin' there's always a mil more
Fact was that cat dragged my pretty ass right at the top of that billboard
And all of my folks who done been here from jump you the ones I'ma cover the bill for
And as I get ill more
We gon' triple the order of champagne and spill more
Let's settle the real score
Been wondering what the public gotta feel for
So let's keep it real yeah you know I'm killing game as soon as I step on the field
Y'all at the top are all mad now, there's no turning back now
I won't ever back down
They feel me like they giving Iggy a pat down
I needed a moment, I found it
Lately I've been on my runnin' the town shit
Especially walkin' around with
This heavy crown
You can't always please the crowd
But I am still not bowing down
This heavy crown
It comes and goes around
And when it's time, I'll pass it proud
But bitch I got it now So keep it cute, chick, and don't be hatin' on the new chick
Go back and check your stats and bet they let you know I do's this Glasses full of empty depending on point of view chick
If you was mad before I bet you hate me for this new shit
Maybe you should watch what you've got coming out your two lips
Get cool with how I kick it or else you gon' get the boot, bitch
Iggy A-Z-A a.k.a. captain of the crew ship
Don't penny pinch I promise babe, I don't need your two cents
Get rid of the makeup let us see just who you is
But if you feel like that girl bless your heart, go get it how you live
When you hear my name you gotta know that she's something regal
I'm one of one ain't no sequels
I'm wearing
This heavy crown
You can't always please the crowd
But I am still not bowing down
This heavy crown
It comes and goes around
And when it's time, I'll pass it proud
But bitch I got it now To everyone who said I'd never make

Oh Lord, weren't you mistaken
I got a dinner date with greatness
Iggy Igg ain't never been nothin' to play wit, hold up
To everyone who said I'd never make
I'm at the top laughin' at you faces
I've been practising my patience
But I switch back quick if you play with This heavy crown
To everyone who said I'd never make it
This heavy crown
Oh Lord weren't you mistaken This heavy crown
To everyone who said I'd never make it
This heavy crown
Oh Lord weren't you mistaken This heavy crown
To everyone who said I'd never make it
This heavy crown
Oh Lord weren't you mistaken This heavy crown
To everyone who said I'd never make it
This heavy crown
Oh Lord weren't you mistaken
