

Congratulations (feat. Matty Mullins)

Sleeping With Sirens

Welcome to a brand new generation
You don't know
So let me help you understand
You see, you try to build yourself a reputation
So you can prove to everyone
That you're the man, yeah
So why is it us that make you feel so helpless?
You better get it out while you still can
'Cause when those lights go on around you
And nobody gives a damn
You're gonna wish that you had taken our advice
That's right
I've been down, I've been out
Now I can't keep my face off a cover
That ain't what it's about
You still have so much left to learn
Congratulations (congratulations)
They say you're the man (they say you're the man)
Congratulations (congratulations)
You see I do what you can't (see I do what you can't)
And until they go and take my name off of the shelves (guess what?)
Congratulations, we're gonna give you hell (Get 'em Matty) They try to do it like me
But they do it all wrong
I'll pass the torch when someone better comes along (Yeah right)
Congratulations to every label that ever turned me down
Me and my top 20 record aren't too worried about it now
I hope this lesson taught is a lesson learned
Now go and bury your head while me and Kellin rule the world!
Congratulations (congratulations)
They say you're the man (yes I am)
Congratulations (congratulations)
You see I do what you can't (see I do what you can't)
And until they go and take my name off of the shelves
Congratulations (congratulations, congratulations) (Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey) Could you please give us the spotlight
Cause I have something to say
You may not like the subject
But I'll say this anyway
We're so sick of all this so-called
Shitty music that you play
So could you please do us a favor
Stay the fuck out of our way
Congratulations (congratulations)
They say you're the man (they say you're the man)

Congratulations (congratulations)
You see I do what you can't (you see I do what you can't)
And until they go and take my name off of the shelves
Please, 'cause I need to make more room for myself (is that good?)
Congratulations
(Wow)
