

Into the Sunset

Mako

Oh, we don't hit much
Pocket full of holes ain't got no luck
One in every town we've been before
Stealing from the rich but giving more
Oh, this is where the legend begins
I think I know the ending for this
And I know it cause
We ride into the sunset like it's the young west
Don't mind lover, reach for the stars
We make out like bandits, dreaming of mansions
Every night you'll sleep in my arms
So darling, ride, ride, ride like the wind
And try, try, try to forget
Our lives might depend on it
Ride into the sunset
Oh, it's all or not
Lovers on the run 'til we get caught
Making a getaway with everything we stole
Pistol on the draw that's hard to show
Cause this is where the legend begins
I think I know the ending for this
And I know it cause
We ride into the sunset like it's the young west
Don't mind lover, reach for the stars
We make out like bandits, dreaming of mansions
Every night you'll sleep in my arms
So darling, ride, ride, ride like the wind
And try, try, try to forget
Our lives might depend on it
Ride into the sunset
