

Tricky, Tricky

Lou Bega

She likes bars she likes diamonds too she likes stars if they rendezvous she drinks champagne to maintain her style she likes a man only for a while she likes access to your bank account she likes dollars, pesos and british pounds she likes money only in high amounts baby is cool she knows what counts She likes to pay with credit cards ride expensive cars stays in the president suite and every day she is looking for a man who gives her more to satisfy her needs
She is a soulshaker, troublemaker she is a heartbreaker
undertaker, moneymaker
she is a lovefaker
Soulshaker, troublemaker
she is a heartbreaker
undertaker, moneymaker
she is a lovefaker
Tricky, tricky but she is pretty, pretty I like holidays when there is nothing to do i like fun for free and an ice cold brew i like to watch football on tv i like to sleep and wake up around three i like to hang out with my boys - making lots of noise - dancing in a club - there is no choice she will never understand that i can't be her man - i am what i am - so damn
She likes to pay with credit cards
and every day she is looking for a man who gives her more
to satisfy her needs
She is a soulshaker, troublemaker
she is a heartbreaker
undertaker, moneymaker
she is a lovefaker
Soulshaker, troublemaker
she is a heartbreaker
undertaker, moneymaker
