

Repeating Days

R5

Climb the stairs to your apartment
Just to see you holding him.
You try to tell me that it's nothing
So I can come in back again. You're looking right in my eyes
And I know that you're lying
When you say that you're mine
And there's no body else.
But even when we fight
I can't stop from loving you. You know we can't be friends.
I guess this is how it ends. Things that you say
I can't erase
Repeating days
It's all the same.
Driving home, I'm empty hearted.
Broken pictures on the floor.
And when I thought that it was over I see you standing at the door.
I'm looking right in your eyes
And you know that I'm lying
When I say that I'm fine
There'll be somebody else.
But after all this time I can't stop from loving you.
You know we can't be friends. Can I taste your lips again?
Things that you say
I can't erase
Repeating days
It's all the same.
We're all afraid of loneliness.
We're all afraid to die alone. And even when you broke my heart
I'd do it again.
You're looking right in my eyes
And you know that you're lying
When I say that you're mine
And there's no body else. But even when we fight
I can't stop from loving you. You know we can't be friends.
Can I taste your lips again?
Things that you say I can't erase
Repeating days
It's all the same.

The day's repeating over again, (Things that you say) Hopelessly, we're over our heads. (I can't erase)

The day's repeating over again, (Repeating Days)
Hopelessly, we're over our heads. (It's all the same) All I got

Is cheap wine.
Do you mind?
All I got is love for you.
All I've got
Cheap wines.
Do you mind?
I will make time for you too.
All I ask
Please don't lie.
Cause this time
I won't come back home to you.
Repeating days
Where we stayed.
It's okay
Cause this time it's up to fate.
