Yeah Sapphire

The Hold Steady

Yeah, Sapphire I'm sick and I'm tired and I'm fried and you gotta believe me Yeah, Sapphire If I cross myself when I come would you maybe receive me?Yeah, Sapphire You were feisty at first but I broke you and I showed you the tempo Sacramento It swung at us first but it ended up going down gentleSapphire, if Cheyenne's too small We'll haul it all back to St. Paul I was just about to call you When you called Yeah, Sapphire I know the last time we touched I came on a bit rough, please forgive me Yeah, Sapphire After you left, it was a big sketchy mess, they almost killed meSapphire, if Cheyenne's too small We'll haul it all back to St. Paul I was just about to call you When you calledSapphire, if St. Paul don't call We've always got Aberdeen 'Cause dreams they seem to cost money But money costs some dreamsIt went just as you predicted I swear there must be something in your dreams It all went down exactly like your visions And I know you said don't call until I'm clean I'm not drunk, I'm cut, I'm gushing blood And I need someone to come and pick me upI was a skeptic at first, but these miracles work I was a skeptic at first, but these miracles work I was a skeptic at first, but these miracles work I was a skeptic at first, but these miracles work Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/