

Rebirth

Hadouken!

(distored)

Once again

Once again

Once again

We start again

Once again

Once again

Once again

We start again

(changes voice)

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

No one there, theres only me

I don't need no sympathy

(normal voice)

Like they rose from the dead again

Such fools shot me straight through the head again

Blessed as the children of Endo saw

That sword strike through less than the pen

Surfacing from primeordial war

we are the sons and daughters of Thor, cos

Take a pretense to the slaughter

Leave other serians on Jordan quarters

As we woke that morning

Human, best that we skip the forman (?)

Ice grinning, torettes still pouring

Fishman crafting, crying out, calling

Lovers have been absorbing endorphins

We're just an unsuccessful abortion

Spartan boys, raised for war-ing

Who told them we are reborn again
No one there, theres only me
I don't need no sympathy
No one there, theres only me
I don't need no sympathy
Its starting (echo)
We'll start again
Rise again (echo)
We'll start again
