Only One

Slipknot

Pain - made to order

Pain - made to order

Pain - made to order

PainI'm not the second coming, I'm the first wave

Better get an army, cuz the fire left me unscathed

You betcha bottom dollar I'm the top of the shit pile

So stick around cuz I'll get to you in just a few

Step off the achtung, get back or get stung

Idiotic sense of yourself, are you that dumb?

Entire legion of me, totalitarian

The one and only muthafucka, top of the world manCuz I can't stand it, planned it, gonna crash land it

In other words, consider me branded

Another version of me, another version of you

Both barrels - what you gonna do?

All I hear is human noise

You made your own fuckin' choice

I belong to only me

Silence for my revelryI can only die over time

Filthy hands, stay away from mine

Every reason is a right to hate

Painful clutch - death is fine, gimme mineOnly One of us walks away

Only One of us walks away

Only One of us walks away

Only One of us walks awaySomebody explain this

You don't care cuz you don't exist

What the fuck is this another joke?

Reckoning!

Only One of us walks away

Only One of us walks away(Walks away)
