

It's a Trip!

Joywave

Creeping, little sneaking, little foreign places
Terrifying territories, I can't take it
It's a great big reckless, yeah
I'm feeling dumb When you've gotten what you want
Maybe I should start over
There's nothing left to want
I'll be at it again
You don't know what you want
Yeah, I'm thinking it over
Just tell me what to want Floating in a secondhand, laugh like jokers
Keeping me from thinking straight, I've lost composure
When you've gotten what you want
Maybe I should start over
I'll be at it again
You don't know what you want
Yeah, I'm thinking it over
Just tell me what I...
When you've gotten what you want
Maybe I should start over
I'll be at it again
You don't know what you want
Yeah, I'm thinking it over
Just tell me what to want This is a trip
This is a trip
When you've gotten what you want
You don't know what you want
Yeah, I'm thinking it over
Just tell me what I...
When you've gotten what you want
Maybe I should start over
I'll be at it again
You don't know what you want
Yeah, I'm thinking it over
Just tell me what to want
