

Never Gonna Be Alone

Brantley Gilbert

I can't promise you my wild side won't show up from time to time
In the end I can't change who I am
And I can't say this highway won't stop howlin' out my name
'Til I'm out on two wheels, out on black again
Even if I can't slow down
Girl I'm gonna tell you right now It always has a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl I'll open my throttle, hell or high water
And feedin' all the smoke
As long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone
And I know I'm gettin' pulled in makin' different directions
Girl you know you always have been my true love
[?] you left southbound and I'm on my way right now It always has a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl I'll open my throttle, hell or high water
And feedin' all the smoke
As long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone
Oh, you're never gonna be alone
No you're never gonna be alone
No No man alive and no red light or blue lights gonna stop me
If you need me girl just say the word you know you got me
It always has a fast lane
It'll bring me back to you
Girl I'll open my throttle, hell or high water
And feedin' all the smoke
As long as I'm breathin'
Yeah, baby you're the reason
Even when my heart's a thousand miles from home
You're never gonna be alone
You're never gonna be alone, nah
