

Legend

Rebelution

This is a story about a youth with a dream
He says, one day I'm gonna be like you
Speak to the masses
I'ma clear up the static
I'm a legend
Soon I'll be a classic
I'ma run, run, run
Get up and get things done my way
Got a vision
I'ma run, run, run
Get up and get things done my way Sooner than later things will change
People in the crowd will start screaming my name
They say to you I give my all and all to you I give my faith
You'll be the man to bring the sunshine from the rain
All will be great
And no disdain
And too much Fun
While getting paid
People will listen
With my suit perfectly fitted
I'm a legend All for the taking
I'm a star in the making
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteous
Give me attention
Man, I swear I'm something special
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteous
All for the taking
I'm a star in the making
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteous
Give me attention
Man, I swear I'm something special
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteous The star of the show
Want everyone to know
Here comes the star of the show
And you want everyone to know Forward progression
Years pass by in a second
He says look at my influence expand
I got everything I want

Certainly I'm a savant
I got the world in the palm of my handsRun, run, run
Got up and got things done my way
Pat on the back, yeah
Done, done, done
Got up and got things done my way
People adore what I preach
Every direction I got everything in reach
I'm guessing I'm the best picture perfect version of perfection
The obsession that everybody needsAll is great
I'm a star in the making
I'm a legend
Give me attention
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteousAll for the taking
I'm a star in the making
I'm a legend
But you ain't righteous
Give me attention
I'm a legend
