Missing Seasons

The Gathering

I slide around on silver wings
I long for air as I strive for solid groundsThis space I have coloured with life and faith
These smiles and tears I've gathered from joy and rageHear the rain

Fear the shame

I feel the painSee the rain

Am I insane

Am I to blame

I feel my thoughts go everywhere

Hung up on walls

Tuning in and fading out This space I've coloured with life and faith, These smiles and tears I've gathered from joy and rageI see you tried

To say goodbye

I just sighedYou denied

To save your pride

You just lied

I hear your voice calling

I see your faith fallingThis space I've coloured with life and pain, These tears and smiles I've gathered from joy and rain
