PILOT (feat. Syd Bennett)

Tyler, The Creator

Fly with the birds in the wind Where you wanna go, who, what, why, when? On a scale of nine to ten, you takin' Ls, baby Hold my hand and feel the wind, uh Now fasten your seatbelt and turn everything off I got your attention, muthafucka I'm bout to take off I'm the new pilot in this bitch And I ain't bring no extra baggage for this trip But I do bring a terror like I hate America Brand new camera and a parachute Nigga you ain't high enough to save me Don't talk to me til I fuckin' embarrass you Now sit your ass down you do it three much I'm the captain on this bitch, don't get it fucked up Or you'll get fucked up I'm so far ahead you niggas I'm in the future You niggas know what I'm sayin'

Y'all don't even know about my existence, it's like I'm dead to you

Look, y'all be on the stupid shit I'm the fuckin' pilot, your role is to be the stewardess I'm the fuckin' bomb like I would stuff my shoe in it

If anything happens it's one door

If I see a building, motherfucker we're done for

I'mma hit a couple of 'em up cause it's Parkour Then I call your family and get your last wishes, nigga

And every large early, you thought that I dug ditches

But I never give a fuck, it's like I was born dickless

I don't wanna crash anymore, I don't wanna crash anymore

I just wanna soar through the space, let the wind hit my face

Til there's nothing left in the gas tank

I don't wanna crash, I don't wanna crash anymore

I don't wanna crash anymore

I just wanna soar through the space, let the wind hit my face

Til there's nothing left in the gas tank

I don't wanna crashI'm in first class but I feel like coach

Cause I'm in first class but I feel like coach

Cause I'm in first class but I feel like coach

Cause I'm in first class but I feel like coachI'm tryna find a place, a place where I can land at

A place where I can be

With no alphabet dictatin' where to stand at You could buy a car, you could buy many things You could buy happiness but you can't buy wings You could buy a parachute, you could buy a parrot
But you can't buy a pair of wings that will dynamic
Stay cloud levelThat's why I'm in first class but I feel like coach
That's why I'm in first class but I feel like coach
That's why I'm in first class but I feel like coachI don't wanna
