Just a Dream

Carrie Underwood

It was two weeks after the day she turned eighteen

All dressed in white

Going to the church that night

She had his box of letters in the passenger seat

Sixpence in a shoe, something borrowed, something blue

And when the church doors opened up wideShe put her veil down

Trying to hide the tears

Oh, she just couldn't believe it

She heard the trumpets from the military band

And the flowers fell out of her handsBaby why'd you leave me

Why'd you have to go?

I was counting on forever, now I'll never know

I can't even breathe

It's like I'm looking from a distance

Standing in the background

Everybody's saying, "He's not coming home now."

This can't be happening to meThis is just a dreamThe preacher man said, "Let us bow our heads and pray.

Lord please lift his soul, and heal this hurt."

Then the congregation all stood up and sang the saddest song that she ever heard

Then they handed her a folded up flag

And she held on to all she had left of him

Oh, and what could have been And then the guns rang one last shot

And it felt like a bullet in her heartBaby, why'd you leave me

Why'd you have to go?

I was counting on forever, now I'll never know

I can't even breathe

It's like I'm looking from a distance

Standing in the background

Everybody's saying, "He's not coming home now."

This can't be happening to me

This is just a dreamOou oh Baby, why'd you leave me

Why'd you have to go?

I was counting on forever, now I'll never know

Oh. I'll never know

It's like I'm looking from a distanceStanding in the background

Everybody's saying, "He's not coming home now."

This can't be happening to me

This is just a dream

Oh oooh this is just a dream

Just a dream

Yeah, yeah
