

Beauty of Uncertainty

KT Tunstall

I need a mirror
In the eyes of a man
I need no protection
From my bulletproof plan
And I've got a ticket
For all that I like
You might think that I'm gone for good
But I know that I'm coming back
Sit at my table
Sip from my bowl
Feel like I know you now
And I will do until I get old
You might not see me
But trust that I'll stay
But there's no sense in traveling
If we've already been that way
Night is a matter
Hidden in grass
Bite like a light depends on the ways
To see how long it lasts
But you know better
You stand your ground
It might just stain a little
But she knows you're sticking around
The beauty of uncertainty
The beauty of uncertainty
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
The beauty of uncertainty
(Beauty of uncertainty)
Beauty of uncertainty
