Here Comes the Flood

Peter Gabriel

When the night shows
The signals grow on radios
All the strange things
They come and go, as early warnings
Stranded starfish have no place to hide
Still waiting for the swollen Eastern tide
There's no point in direction we cannot
Even choose a side.I took the old track
The hollow shoulder, across the waters
On the tall cliffs

They were getting older, sons and daughters
The jaded underworld was riding high
Waves of steel hurled metal at the sky
And as the nail sunk in the cloud, the rain
Was warm and soaked the crowd.
Lord, here comes the flood

Here we'll say goodbye to flesh and blood
If again the seas are silent
In any still alive

It'll be those who gave their island to survive Drink up, dreamers, you're running dry.When the flood calls

You have no home, you have no walls
In the thunder crash

You're a thousand minds, within a flash

Don't be afraid to cry at what you see The actors gone, there's only you and me

If we break before the dawn

They'll use up what we used to be.

Lord, here comes the flood

We'll say goodbye to flesh and blood

If again the seas are silent

In any still alive

It'll be those who gave their island to survive

Drink up, dreamers, you're running dry.Lord, here comes the flood

We'll say goodbye to flesh and blood

If again the seas are silent

In any still alive

Drink up, dreamers, you're running dry. Drink up, dreamers, you're running dry. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
