

Don't Tell Me Goodnight

Lobo

Lying there beside me
With your head resting on my arm
Your body feels so warm
And your hair smells like a Sunday morning I feel you moving closer
And I know what you're gonna say
But girl there's just no way
I'll ever like what you'll be saying Don't tell me goodnight
It makes me feel so empty inside
And if only I could, I wouldn't sleep at all
Oh, don't tell me goodnight
Just let me drift off slowly away
And dream, hmm, hmm, hmm, of you, ooh, you, ooh
You reach out and you touch me
Just to let me know you're there
And I can feel your hair
And somehow I don't feel like sleeping Don't tell me goodnight
It makes me feel so empty inside
And if only I could, I wouldn't sleep at all
Oh, don't tell me goodnight
Just let me drift off slowly away
And dream, hmm, hmm, hmm, of you, ooh, ooh
(Don't tell me goodnight)
No, don't tell me goodnight (Don't tell me goodnight)
Don't tell me (Don't tell me goodnight)
Don't tell me goodnight (Don't tell me goodnight)
Don't tell me goodnight (Don't tell me goodnight)
Don't tell me goodnight (Don't tell me goodnight)
Don't tell me goodnight (Don't tell me goodnight)
(Don't tell me goodnight) (Don't tell me goodnight)
(Don't tell me goodnight)
