The sweet-faced ones with nothing left inside
That we all can love
That we all can love
That we all
That we all can love
That we all can love
That we all And now I see you messing me around
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
I don't want
When I see you messing me around
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts, make it rain
Broken hearts
Pieces of a rag doll mankind
That we can create
That we can create
That we can Pieces of a rag doll mankind
That we can create
That we can create
But when I see you messing me around
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
I don't want
When I see you messing me around
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
I don't want to know
