Hammerfall

HammerFall

Silent screaming,
You're on your own
Balancing on a blade between
Whats right and what is wrong
Don't loose your faith, don't sit there in silence show your strength, let's hail the metal gods, bare your heartAll for one, our burning hearts will live forever One for all, together standing strongHammerfall, we will prevail

Hammerfall, let us hail

Hammerfall, let us hail

We share a dream, the future is ours

A metal heart is hard to tear apart, heed the call

A flash of light calls out the providers

We run this race, but we will never crawl, all hail HammerfallAll for one, our burning hearts will live forever

One for all, together standing strongHammerfall, we will prevail

Hammerfall, let us hail Hammerfall, let us hail

Just follow your heart, don't listen to the crowd The wisdom, the voice is calling from inside The time long forgotten will soon come again Prepare for the meeting, the gods of metal reign
