

Love Again

Pentatonix

Taste the pain right on my tongue
Novocaine to make me numb
Don't you worry 'cause the night is young
Dancing 'til the morning sun Morning sun, morning sun
Morning, morning, morning-ning-ning-ning-ning-I am at a loss for words
Can't believe I let you pull me down to this place
You stole my heart and soul
Just to think that I have dried those tears from your face I played such a foolish game
Feeling you were everything to me and more
I don't mean to point the blame
But baby you have hurt me to my very core
You don't know why, you don't know how
You don't know when to love again
You let me in then shut me out
You have to learn to love again Learn to love again, learn to love again, learn to love again Take me away from here
To a place where my feelings don't go to waste
We were in the atmosphere
Flying high above the stars that shown on your face So I run, run baby from the curtain
That you're giving me all through the night
I'll be dancing baby, dancing
So your pretty face is hard to see tonight, tonight, tonight You don't know why, you don't know how
You don't know when to love again
You let me in then shut me out
You have to learn to love again (Werk) Imma teach you how to love, I will continue to 'Imma teach you how to love, I will continue to (Werk) Learn to love again ('Imma teach you how to love)
Learn to love again (I will continue to) Learn to love again ('Imma teach you how to love)
Love again, love again! Taste the pain right on my tongue
Novocaine to make me numb
Don't you worry cause the night is young Dancing till the morning sun Taste the pain right on my tongue (You don't know why, you don't know how)
Novocaine to make me numb (You don't know when to love again)
Don't you worry 'cause the night is young (You left me in then shut me out) Dancing 'til the morning sun (You have to learn to love again) Morning sun (love again), morning sun (love again)
Morning, morning, morning sun! ('Imma teach you how to love) You don't know why, you don't know how

You don't know when to love again
You let me in then shut me out
You have to learn to love again
