

Crumbler

Jungle

Who do you think you're kidding now?
Screaming, lying, about it now.

I know you're kicking on Yeah it's calling everyone
There's something tonight,
going on down there
so crawl up, it, baby.

All I ever wanted tonight
Is going on down there
so crawl it, baby.

You can't wash it off meaning, drumming it's hard enough.

You're too quick, enough
'cause it's all i ever knew again

There's something tonight,
going on down there
so crawl up, it, baby.

All I ever wanted tonight
Is going on down there
so crawl it, baby.

Here we go again;

Hey, i want you tonight

Hey, i want you tonight

Is going on down there and every day

going on down there
