

My Little Prayer

David Archuleta

Heavenly Father, I am grateful
For your eternal presence
I am learning to be patient
And that you are really there
Sometimes I am afraid,
And I know that's lacking faith
But I'm beginning to understand,
That for me you have a plan
Heavenly Father, I am grateful
For you sending your son
To die so that I live
And for never giving up
I'm learning everyday
That I won't always have my way
But I'm beginning to understand
That for me you have a plan
Heavenly Father, I am grateful
For you hearing my prayer
I am learning to be patient,
And that you are really there
There are answers I'm receiving
No, they're not always immediate
Sometimes I have felt a feeling,
That's when I kneel down in prayer
You show me you hear my prayer
I'm amazed by how you care,
Cause you hear
My little prayer
