

Timepieces and Lock Shaped Hearts

Darko

I once tore the world a new asshole
A reckless taunted soul
These are the songs I
Screamed at the world Does it all counts for nothing?
All the great songs have been sung
But these are the songs I leave to the world This is all for you
It has never been more true
Timepieces and lock shaped hearts
They're what I leave for you I once tore the world a new asshole
Can't remember why I'm mad at the world
As it all crashed down
Empty and gnarled
I suppose it all counts for something
Screaming 'bout my demons we've been here before
Time and time again
It's becoming a chore This is all for you
It has never been more true
Timepieces and lock shaped hearts
They're what I leave for you I'll stand right here on the edge of the world
And scream my lungs into this void This is all for you
It has never been more true
Timepieces and lock shaped hearts
They're what I leave for you
I'll stand right here on the edge of the world
And scream my lungs into this void
And wait for you until I'm....
