The Kill

Joy Division

Moved in a hired car and I find no way to run

Adds every moment longer had no time for funJust something that I knew I had to do

But through it all I left my eyes on youI had an impulse to clear it all away

Oh I used the tactics make everybody payJust something that I knew I had to do

But through it all I kept my eyes on youOh I keep it all clean I've paid the graces there

No kings of misuse no sellers of fleshJust something that I knew I had to do

But through it all I kept my eyes on you

Yeah through it all I kept my eyes on you

But through it all I kept my eyes on you
