

These Hands

Taylor Ray Holbrook

Saturday night, seein you out
Pullin you in, you're lookin around
The look in your eyes, I've already found
Why you're so on edge
Im figurin out What makes you tick, what makes you hot
What did he throw in the boat to make it rock
So many questions on why and why not
But on second thought These hands were made to hold you,
And I wanna get to show you
Can't believe the things you've been through
Issues, trustin him to stick with you
Now close your eyes while I kiss you
Cuz I know
These hands were made to hold you
Hold you
Baby I'm down for takin it slow
Well go as fast as you wanna go
And when the time's right
And you feel like
Sugar let me know What did he say, what did he do
Why dont' you put it on me what he put you through
Tell me your story, forget it
Lets get on to me and you And these hands that wanna hold you
And I wanna get to showin you
Can't believe the things you've been through
Issues, trusting him to stick with you
Now close your eyes while I kiss you
Cuz I know
These hands were made to hold you
Hold you
These hands were made to hold you
I wanna get to showin you
Can't believe the things you've been through
Issues, trusting him to stick with you
Now close your eyes while I kiss you
Cuz I know These hands were made to hold you
(Repeat)
??????
