

Perfect

Sara Evans

If you don't take me to Paris on a lover's getaway, it's alright, it's alright
If I'd rather wear your t-shirt than a sexy negligee, it's alright, It's alright
    Every dinner doesn't have to be candlelit
    It's kinda nice to know that it Doesn't have to be perfect
    Maybe every little piece of the puzzle doesn't always fit perfectly
    Love can be rough around the edges, tattered at the seams Honey, if it's good enough for you, it's good enough for me If your mother doesn't like the way I treat her baby boy, it's alright, it's alright
If, in every wedding picture, my daddy looks annoyed, it's alright, it's alright
    Don't you know that all the fairy tales tell a lie
    Real love and real life
    Doesn't have to be perfect
    Maybe every little piece of the puzzle doesn't always fit perfectly
    Love can be rough around the edges, tattered at the seams
Honey, if it's good enough for you, it's good enough for me Oh, you don't mind if I show up late for everything
    When you lose your cool, it's kinda cute to me Hey, ain't it nice to know that we Don't have to be perfect
    Maybe every little piece of the puzzle doesn't always fit perfectly
    Love can be rough around the edges, tattered at the seams
Honey, if it's good enough for you, it's good enough for me Oh, you're good enough for me, uh huh
    Yeah, you're good enough for me
    Oh, you're good enough for me
