

Confessions of a Teenage Jerk-Off

Robert Pollard

Since you laid the scenery girl
You will always be around
Time tested and true - oh yeah
When you laid around a two day night
You were crying in my room
I've waited a lifetime
No chance she would ever speak
Dead exit see me leaving now
To every time so precious
Then you leave me with a mind so treacherous
Now she's gone
My world's pain
Shredding like the rain
All come down
What can I compare your eyes to
Without you?
Stay long and see
The fangs we grow
Fight me down
Paralyzed
My time to speak
Come on listen
She won't listen
Those days were crazy
An amusement park in hell
Felt so wrong and happy
I thought I'd never tell
In '79 or '80 then I placed a bet
She bought off one early
Out of patience - doubt that
The stars in the morning
Are as pebbles against glass
Gone black without warning
Dare to preach you
