

Blow Up

Sammy Adams

I've been workin' all night, man
What's a young kid gotta do to blow up?
This life's becomin' somethin' I can't stand
Tell those people go home, I don't wanna grow up I drank too much again last night, damn
Woke up with a hangover, time to roll up
Been workin' so hard, can't they understand? So many kids like me, we just wanna blow up
Blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up
Yeah, we just wanna blow up I just wanna prove a teacher wrong
Tell them that my own degree didn't help me write a song
Only payin' attention of the girl with the thong
And the skirt so short, it's like she barely has a lawn
And uh, sick of hearin' 'bout my alcohol abuses
And makin' up extravagant excuses, they're useless
So deuces to the classroom, welcome to your dreams
That made you without a major, homie, welcome to the team I've been workin' all night, man
What's a young kid gotta do to blow up?
This life's becomin' somethin' I can't stand
Tell those people go home, I don't wanna grow up I drank too much again last night, damn
Woke up with a hangover, time to roll up
Been workin' so hard, can't they understand? So many kids like me, we just wanna blow up
Blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up
Yeah, we just wanna blow up Wakin' up, weights become a trend
I roll over in the mornin', random girl up in my bed
And I swear she was a cutie, she was lookin' like a ten
But the proof is in the puddin', I was obviously there
Obviously put it on a rich girl's dad
Just tryna make money like a rich girl dad
So deuces to the school life, fuckin' with a game
What made ya without a major, homie, look what I became I've been workin' all night, man
What's a young kid gotta do to blow up?
This life's becomin' somethin' I can't stand
Tell those people go home, I don't wanna grow up I drank too much again last night, damn
Woke up with a hangover, time to roll up
Been workin' so hard, can't they understand? So many kids like me, we just wanna blow up
Blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up
Yeah, we just wanna blow up, blow up
Blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up Yeah, we just wanna blow up
I've been workin' all night, man
What's a young kid gotta do to blow up?
This life's becomin' somethin' I can't stand
Tell those people go home, I don't wanna grow up I drank too much again last night, damn
Woke up with a hangover, time to roll up

Been workin' so hard, can't they understand?
So many kids like me, we just wanna blow up
Blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up, blow up
Yeah, we just wanna blow up
