Bartender

Dave Matthews Band

If i go before i'm old oh, brother of mine please don't forget me if i go Bartender, please fill my glass for me with the wine you gave jesus that set him free after three days in the ground Oh, and if i die before my time oh, sweet sister of mine please don't regret me if i die Bartender, please fill my glass for me with the wine you gave jesus that set him free after three days in the ground Bartender, please fill my glass for me with the wine you gave jesus that set him free after three days in the ground I'm on bended knees, i pray bartender, please When i was young, i didn't think about it now i can't get it out of my mind I'm on bended knees father, please Oh, and if all this gold should steal my soul away oh, dear mother of mine please redirect me if this gold... Bartender, you see the wine that's drinking me came from the vine that strung judas from the devil's tree his roots deep, deep in the ground Bartender, you see the wine that's drinking me ground...

I'm on bended knees
oh, bartender, please
I'm on bended knees

came from the vine that strung judas from the devil's tree its roots deep, deep in the ground

father, please
When i was young, i didn't think about it now i just want to run and hide
I'm on bended knees
oh, bartender, please
bartender, please...
