

Firewater

Yellowcard & Baron Bodnar

You sat me down beside myself
To show me all the reasons, I was wrong for you
Was this for real, it's hard to tell
'Cause it was such a beautiful mess we had got into I'm gonna overcome this Paper hearts can't win this time
And all along I should have known
This wasn't your dream, it was mine I know you wanted me To give up this life to be Everything I was back when you Had the hands, my heart was in
I was never good at goodbye
Can I swallow this bottle whole
So this brain in my head can forget your face?
When we were starting out You believed in me without a doubt
You were the finest thing
To happen to a boy like me
It's so much harder now I wanna try and tell you how
There is so much love in me
Even though it's hard to see
And I was never good at goodbye
Can I swallow this bottle whole So this brain in my head can forget your face?
Can I swallow this bottle whole
'Cause I'd rather be dead than make more mistakes?
Today I couldn't stay awake
Feels like I'm drowning in this firewater lake
I won't be sleeping much tonight
It's not the same without you lying by my side
Right beside me
Can I swallow this bottle whole
So this brain in my head can forget your face? Can I swallow this bottle whole
'Cause I'd rather be dead than make more mistakes?
I know you wanted me to give up my life to be
(Can I swallow this bottle whole?)
Everything I am when you're the only thing that I can see
(Can I swallow this bottle whole?)
I'm sorry but you're not the, not the only one for me
(Can I swallow this bottle whole?)
So this brain in my head can forget your face
You left me here beside myself
Left me with all the reasons, I was wrong for you

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>

