Running Out of Time (Julia Holter Remix)

Nite Jewel

i tried to make it right and i failed so many times i prevailed
in a different light
but one will always side
do i abide
to the decency
of life that's ruled by love?
or do i cry
in secrecy
when i have to give it up?i'm running out of time different lives
the mystery
of a want to be reborn
and my mind
in history
forever seeks to mournpleasure unremembered in my periphery
and in front of me
everywhere
in a dark blue and purple shadeand me an ecstatic being
went up to an apex
riding a blanket
of energy
the city shined light sporadically i rode the sky and all the while the earth remained down perched
in the dark
for homecoming
