

Catfish

Tamar Braxton

You slept on my couch before
I gave you some good love every night
I made sure you had everything that you wanted
Now this new chick you're on
She don't do right, she don't do right
You asked for gas money 'cause you never had your own
You on this new fish, like I ain't put you on I ain't tripping, don't phase me now
I ain't tripping, don't phase me now
Oh
I ain't tripping, don't phase me now
I ain't tripping, don't phase me now Baby I know the real you
Baby I know the real you
Baby I know the real you
Baby I know the real you
Don't flex
Baby I know the real you
Don't flex

Don't flex I know where your momma stay
Your sister keep asking bout me
Don't front for the 'gram babe
Them pictures be all about me
There's something about you that I just can't explain
Got me all in my feelings
Why you're playing this game
I was round, I was down for you
And we both know it's true
Why you acting brand new?
