

Greater Heights

tyDi, Tenishia & Jennifer Rene

You can say I
Didn't give you my all
Never wonder just to watch us fall
Now I'm moving
Moving on today Don't need someone
To help me escape
From this sleep I
Can't seem to wake
I can take me, take me away
Take me away Just pray tonight
Now that I can fly
I'm going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light
I was lost I
You could say I was weak
In the locked room
No one hears me scream
Suffocating
From your hands on my face Now I know I've Made mistakes from the past
Take for granted
Time can pass so fast
But I found me, found me here in this place I may have lost my way but now that I am found
There is no limit I cannot reach
I have left the ground
Just pray tonight
Now that I can fly
I'm going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light Just pray tonight
Now that I can fly
I'm going up, up, up
I'm not coming down, down, down
I feel light
