

Future Mind

Believer

[K. Bachman / J. Daub / J. Winters] Living proof of what can be Escaping from life's tragedy
Learning through another's mind
To catch a glimpse beyond the skies Mental rush of abstract pain
Never asking what's to gain
Never lost in splintered eyes
Focused on what inward lies Return to me, I'll return to you
I will not change, to justify you Living proof of what must be Broken from the misery
Never lost in present time
Always seeking future mind Return to me, I'll return to you
I will not change, to justify you
[Mat. 7: 3; Malachi 3: 6-7]
