

She's Finally Home

Cissy McCaa

Jesus I have one simple prayer
Im asking You to take a message
To the one who was always there
She never lost her faith in You
She always taught to believe in truth
Now shes gone to be with You
And I will carry on
Tell her I love her for being my mother
Tell her I miss her hug her and kiss her
Tell her Im pleased that shes gone home
Tell her shes special a glorious vessel
Angels are singing Heavens bells are ringing
Shes finally home praise God shes finally home
Shes free now and she sees now
All the things that her heart desired
To see Gods face and to feel His power
She receives now I believe now
Shell never be alone, Oh no
Shes finally home
Tell her I love her for being my mother
Tell her I miss her hug her and kiss her
Tell her Im pleased that shes gone home
Tell her shes special a glorious vessel
Angels are singing Heavens bells are ringing
Shes finally home praise God shes finally home
