Bombs Away

The Police

The general scratches his belly and thinks His pay is good but his officers stink

Guerilla girl, hard and sweet

A military man would love to meetThe President looks in the mirror and speaks

His shirts are clean but his country reeks

Unpaid bills

In Afghanistan hillsBombs away

But we're O.K.

Bombs away

In old BombayThe general only wants to teach France to dance

His army life doesn't give him any romance

Guerilla girl, hard and sweet

A military man would love to meet

The general scratches his belly and thinks

His pay is good but his company stinks

Guerilla girl, hard and sweet

A military man would love to meetBombs away

But we're O.K.

Bombs away

In old BombayBombs away

But we're O.K.

Bombs away

In old BombayBombs away

But we're O.K.

Bombs away

In old Bombay

Bombs away

But we're O.K.

Bombs away

In old Bombay
