Lost On the Stoop

Daniel Powter

Shed off and peel

I'm in no shape or form

You're just a reject coming down for moreWhen two are receiving

You know I could be there

Soon you're laughing

Soon you're laughing my wayYour daddy don't get you

He'd been a big mess

Soon you're laughing

Soon you're laughing my wayYou're urban, you're complete

And you know I will be there

Soon you're laughing

Soon you're laughing your way

When you're lost on the stoop

When you fall out of bounds

Yeah, you could be leaves down, downAnd it's always your fault

You get lost in yourself

Yeah, you could be leaves down, downAnd I can find you

Once you know 'bout this plan

And now I can find you

Once you insult the manAnd yeah, you like this trash talking

Washing you down

And yeah, you like this trash talking

Moving me aroundWhen two are deceiving

You know I could be there

Soon you're laughing

Soon you're laughing your way again

When you're lost in the stoop

When you lie down on bounds

Yeah, you could be leaves down, downBut it's always your fault

You get lost on the stupid things

When you're leaves down, downWell, I can find you lonely

Without a plan

And now I can find you

Once you insult the manAnd yeah, you like this trash talking

Washing you down

And yeah, you like this trash talking

Moving through all, stand down againNow when you're lost in the stoop

When you lie down on bounds

Yeah, you could be leaves down, downBut it's always your fault

You get lost on the stupid things

When you're leaves down, down
