

One of a Kind Pair of Fools

Barbara Mandrell

He had the best of both worlds
Yours and mine
And I bet he's proud of himself
The way he split his time Telling all his friends
How good it feels to play both ends
I'm sure in all of their eyes
That you and I are One of a kind, a pair of fools
Two women one man's been lying to
You thought you were the only one, I thought I was too
We're one of a kind, a pair of fools
Honey, we could talk this out
Like the best of friends
But we're not to blame for the pain
That, that man has put us in When we break the news
That you know about me and I know about you
After what he's done
He better start to run from this One of a kind, a pair of fools
Two women one man's been lying to
You thought you were the only one, I thought I was too
We're one of a kind, a pair of fools When we break the news
That you know about me and I know about you
After what he's done
He better start to run from this
One of a kind, a pair of fools
Two women one man's been lying to
You thought you were the only one, I thought I was too
I guess we see now what blind love can do We're one of a kind, a pair of fools
Two women one man's been lying to
You thought you were the only one
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>