

The Backpack Song

Bear Attack

Backpack on my back, walking down a railroad track
Oh, I've been wanting to see you
Eyes upon the rows of trees, an endless sea in front of me
Oh, I've been longing to see you You've been on my mind, talk about a lonely time
You don't know how much I need you
Once I feel the downy snow, the only home I've ever known
I'll hold you close when I see you There's no way I could let you go
There's no way I could let you go
There's no way I could let you go And it seems to me
We sing soft and low
Such a sweet hello
Backpack on my back, standing on a railroad track
It won't be long 'til I see you
Why do I always have to leave the only one I'll ever need?
Now hold me close while I breathe you There's no way I could let you go
There's no way I could let you go
There's no way I could let you go And it seems to me
We sing soft and low
Such a sweet hello Backpack on my back, walking down a railroad track
Oh, I've been wanting to see you
Eyes upon the rows of trees, an endless sea in front of me
Oh, I've been longing to see you You've been on my mind, talk about a lonely time (There's no way I could let you go)
You don't know how much I need you (There's no way I could let you go)
Eyes upon the rows of trees, an endless sea in front of me (There's no way I could let you go)
Oh, I've been longing to see you (There's no way I could let you go)
And it seems to me (Backpack on my back, walking down a railroad track)
We sing soft and low (Oh, I've been wanting to see you)
Such a sweet hello (Eyes upon the rows of trees, an endless sea in front of me)
(Oh, I've been longing to see you) You've been on my mind, talk about a lonely time (There's no way I could let you go)
You don't know how much I need you
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>